

2.7 Develop flexible models to effectively utilise the institution's intellectual property.

UniQuest

UniQuest is a leading provider of intellectual property management services for universities and research organisations. It offers a range of services including patent and trademark registration, IP valuation, and IP commercialisation. UniQuest also provides a range of IP management tools and services, including IP portfolio management, IP risk management, and IP compliance. UniQuest is a member of the International Association of Universities (IAU) and the International Association of Intellectual Property (IAIP). UniQuest is also a member of the European Association of Universities (EAU) and the European Association of Intellectual Property (EAIP). UniQuest is a leading provider of intellectual property management services for universities and research organisations. It offers a range of services including patent and trademark registration, IP valuation, and IP commercialisation. UniQuest also provides a range of IP management tools and services, including IP portfolio management, IP risk management, and IP compliance. UniQuest is a member of the International Association of Universities (IAU) and the International Association of Intellectual Property (IAIP). UniQuest is also a member of the European Association of Universities (EAU) and the European Association of Intellectual Property (EAIP).

